

Our Wider Achievements:

- We continue to offer 1 educator running the THRIVE to keep well project in the community.
- This session we have introduced our 'Well-being buddies' initiative. We have hosted stay and play sessions to introduce the initiative to our families.
- We Run weekly book bug sessions at Sauchie ELC with 3 trained educators.
- We host our own Toddler Group on Mondays 9:45-10:45 @ Sauchie ELC.
- We achieved our Silver Rights respecting school award and were awarded our silver status.
- We achieved our Full STEM nation award and are the first ELC setting in Clackmannanshire to achieve the FULL STEM NATION AWARD.
- We continue to develop our intergenerational partnerships in the community and still attend Beechwood Care home to visit. This year we also established a new relationship with Marchglen Care home too.
- We are working to become Promise Committed. We look forward to exploring this initiative more in the upcoming year and progressing this work further.
- We were awarded a Live Literacy Residency through the Scottish Book Trust and will be working alongside illustrator and author Emily Mackenzie to develop children's literacy skills through this residency opportunity. Sauchie ELC is the first ELC setting in Scotland to be awarded residency before.

Improvement Plan Priorities 24-25:

Priority 1 = By June 2025 all children will have evidenced progression in 'personalised achievement' supported by skilled and confident Key Worker

Priority 2 = By June 2025 pre-school children will progress in their literacy skills through progressing in at least 2 phases in the Sauchie ELC literacy trajectories.

Priority 3 = By June 2025 targeted children of Sauchie ELC learners will have steady involvement and engagement in learning through an enabling learning environment.

Family Learning

64% of our families attended Stay and Play Sessions and 100% of those who attended contributed to their child's e-journal learning as a result of these.

Due to our effective consultation process, we have methods of keeping families updated on children's learning which our families feel work well. "Updates directly from staff as well as the learning journal which is an amazing insight into his world away from us" – Parent @ Sauchie ELC
