CL	Scottish Parliament	Constituency candidate checklist
----	---------------------	----------------------------------

This checklist is designed to assist constituency candidates at the Scottish Parliamentary election in preparing to submit their nomination, and should be read alongside the Electoral Commission's Guidance for candidates and agents.

Task - Nomination paper (all candidates)	Tick
Insert the name of the constituency and election date – check with the CRO if you are unsure
Add your full name – surname and all other names in full in the relevant boxes
Optional – Use the commonly used name(s) box(es) if you commonly use a name that is different, or partly different, from your actual name and you want it to be used instead of your full name
Description – Party candidates can use the party name as registered with the Electoral Commission and supported by a certificate of authorisation from that party; the registered name of a party may be preceded by the word “Scottish”. Others can use ‘Independent’ or leave this blank
Add your home address in full
Sign and date the form in the presence of a witness. There are no restrictions on who can be a witness
Witness – your witness needs to sign and provide their name and address
Method of submitting the nomination form to the CRO: by hand. There are no restrictions on who can deliver it, but it should be someone you trust

Task - Candidate’s consent to nomination (all candidates)	Tick
Complete all the details on the form and read the declaration carefully. Make sure that you read the Electoral Commission guidance on standing for election as well as the legislation listed. If you are not sure if you are able to stand you should contact your employer (where relevant), consult the legislation or, if necessary, take your own independent legal advice. If you are satisfied that you meet all of the criteria listed and so are eligible to stand, sign the declaration
Add your full date of birth
Sign and date the document in the presence of another person. Don’t sign the consent form earlier than one month before the deadline for submitting your nomination papers
Get the other person to complete and sign the witness section. The consent to nomination will not be accepted without this information
Method of submitting the consent to nomination form to the CRO: by hand. There are no restrictions on who can deliver it, but it should be someone you trust

Task - Certificate of authorisation (party candidates only)	Tick
Ensure the certificate contains the candidate’s full name and that the other details are completed
Check the certificate allows the registered party name given on the nomination paper to be used; the registered name of a party may be preceded by the word “Scottish”
Ensure it is issued by the party Nominating Officer (or someone that they have authorised to issue it on their behalf)
Method of submitting the certificate of authorisation to the CRO: by hand or by post. There are no restrictions on who can deliver it, but it should be someone you trust
Task - Request for an emblem (party candidates only)	Tick
Write the name or description of an emblem registered by the party and published on the Electoral Commission’s website
The request must be made by the candidate

Method of submitting the emblem request form to the CRO: by hand or by post. There are no restrictions on who can deliver it, but it should be someone you trust

Task - Notification of election agent (all candidates)	Tick
Give the name, address and office address of your appointed election agent. If no election agent is appointed by the given deadline, you as the candidate are deemed to be appointed as election agent
If the election agent does not want their home address to appear on the Notice of Election Agents, ensure that they declare that they want a correspondence address to be included instead
Ensure the appointed agent signs the form showing their acceptance
Method of submitting the notification form to the CRO: by hand or by post. There are no restrictions on who can deliver it, but it should be someone you trust

Task - Notification of sub-agent (all candidates)	Tick
The election agent may appoint one or more sub-agents to act on their behalf in any part of the constituency but each must have a separate area. Sub-agent areas must not overlap
Give the name, address and office address of the sub-agent
If the sub-agent does not want their home address to appear on the Notice of Sub-Agents, ensure that they declare that they want a correspondence address to be included instead
Method of submitting the notification form(s) to the CRO: by hand or by post. There are no restrictions on who can deliver these, but it should be someone you trust

Task - Candidate contact information (all candidates)	Tick
This form is optional – more details regarding the use of your data are on the form. Add your name, email address, telephone number, and sign the form.
If you are not acting as your own agent, ask your election agent to add their name, email address, telephone number, and sign the form.

Task - Deposit (all candidates)	Tick
Confirm with the CRO that your preferred method of payment is acceptable, and deposit £500 with the CRO by the deadline for nominations

Notes

1. Where a candidate is commonly known by some title, they may be described by that title as if it was their surname. Where a candidate has a commonly used name, that commonly used surname or forename may also be used in addition to or instead of the other name on the nomination paper, but if it does so, the commonly used name (instead of any other name) will appear on the statement of persons standing nominated and the ballot paper (Schedule 2, rules 4 and 18). However, the statement of persons standing nominated and the ballot paper will show the other name if the Constituency Returning Officer thinks –
 - (a) that the use of the commonly used name may be likely to mislead or confuse electors,
 - or (b) that the commonly used name is obscene or offensive (Schedule 2, rule 18(5)).
2. The candidate may, if desired, use a description or may leave this line blank to indicate that they do not want to use a description. If a description is to be used then it must either be “Independent” or the name of the candidate’s registered political party (or the name of two such parties). If the registered name of a party is used then this may be preceded by the word “Scottish” in terms of rule 4(7). If a party name is to be used then a certificate of authorisation must also be submitted to the Constituency Returning Officer (Schedule 2, rule 7).

Notes

1. A person shall not be validly nominated unless their consent to nomination –
 - (a) is given and dated in writing on, or within one month before, the day fixed as the last day for delivery of nomination papers;
 - (b) is attested by one witness, and
 - (c) is delivered at the place and within the time for the delivery of nomination papers, subject to paragraph 2 below.
2. If the Constituency Returning Officer is satisfied that owing to the absence of a person from the United Kingdom it has not been reasonably practicable for their consent in writing to be given as mentioned above, a facsimile (or similar means of communication) consenting to his or her nomination and purporting to have been sent by him or her shall be deemed to be consent in writing given by him or her on the day on which it purports to have been sent, and attestation of his or her consent shall not be required. Contact the Constituency Returning Officer for full details of this procedure.
3. There are no restrictions on where the office address can be located.

7 - Scottish Parliament election: candidate contact information

For completion by a constituency candidate and their election agent (if they are not acting as their own agent) at a Scottish Parliament election.

You are not required to complete and return this form but providing contact details to the Constituency Returning Officer (CRO) in this way will enable the CRO to contact you quickly with relevant information regarding the election.

In addition, to help support the safety and security of everyone who wants to participate in elections, it is important that the police can proactively contact candidates and election agents to provide you with relevant, timely information and advice.

By providing your contact details on this form you are also agreeing that the CRO may share them with the police to help them to support the safety of all candidates and election agents participating in the election. In particular, this will enable the police to contact you directly with relevant, timely security information about the election.
