
Report to Council of 18th December 2008

Subject: Appointment of an Elected Member Representative to Visit Scotland Area Tourism Partnership

Prepared by: Eileen Mckinsley, Administration & Legal Services

1.0 SUMMARY

- 1.1. Following Councillor Eddie Carrick's letter of resignation there is a vacancy for a Council representative on Visit Scotland Area Tourism Partnership.

2.0 RECOMMENDATIONS

- 2.1. Council is asked to nominate an Elected Member to fill the vacancy on Visit Scotland Area Tourism Partnership.

3.0 BACKGROUND

- 3.1. Council had previously approved the nomination of Councillor Carrick as a representative on Visit Scotland Area Tourism Partnership.
- 3.2. As Councillor Carrick has submitted a letter of resignation from the Tourism Partnership a further nomination is required to fill the vacancy.
- 3.3. In accordance with Section 4 of the Councillors' Code of Conduct every elected member has a personal responsibility to register interests financial and otherwise. The Code advises that Councillors must register all directorships and positions of office in public bodies, clubs, organisations and societies. Guidance notes on the registration of interests have been issued to every Clackmannanshire Councillor.
- 3.4. Elected Members nominated to external bodies may be required to undertake training on their duties on that body. This will be provided in-house and members should be prepared to attend.

4.0 CONCLUSIONS

- 4.1 Council is asked to make a decision on an appropriate nomination.
