The Council hereby REFUSE PLANNING PERMISSION IN PRINCIPLE for the:-

Erection Of 1 No. House

Harrylayock, Forestmill, Clackmannanshire, FK14 7NE,

in accordance with your application and plans Ref. No:- 18/00029/PPP dated 14th February 2018

For the following reasons-

1. The need for the proposed house to be located in the countryside has not been satisfactorily demonstrated. There is insufficient evidence to indicate that livestock on the farmland at Harrylayock cannot be adequately managed from the applicant's existing farmhouse at Gibsley, some 6km away. In addition, an existing house adjoining the planning application site was previously owned by the farm business and appears to still be in the control of the applicants, and which could adequately serve the adjoining farmland, if required. The application is therefore contrary to Policies SC23 and SC24 of the Clackmannanshire Local Development Plan, adopted 2015.

NOTES FOR GUIDANCE

1. Please examine your decision notice carefully. It describes the development to which the decision relates, includes any conditions that must be complied with and explains the reasons for the decision.
2. Please also read the following guidance. It contains important information regarding
 - * the duration of the permission
 - * rights of review
 - * requirements for further notification to the Council; and
 - * the publicising of the development.
3. Section 59 Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997 as amended by the Planning etc. (Scotland) Act 2006 - Planning Permission in Principle:-
 - (a) In the case of matters specified by conditions, further application(s) for approval must be made to the Council not later than the expiration of 3 years beginning with the date of this permission. Otherwise, the planning permission lapses on that date.
 - (b) The development to which this permission relates must be begun not later than the expiration of 5 years from the date of this permission or within the expiration of 2 years from the final approval of matters specified whichever is the later. Otherwise, the planning permission lapses on the latter date.
4. Section 58 Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act as amended by the Planning etc. (Scotland) Act 2006 - Planning Permission: Unless otherwise stated overleaf, the development to which this permission relates must be begun not later than the expiration of 3 years from the date of this permission. Otherwise, the planning permission lapses on that date.
5. If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision to refuse permission for or approval required by a condition, in respect of the proposed development, or to grant permission for approval subject to conditions, the applicant may require the planning authority to review the case under Section 43A of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997 within three months from the date of this notice. The Notice of Review form is available to download on the Council's website or can be obtained from the Council's Local Review Body at LRB@clacks.gov.uk. Once completed the form should be returned to the same mailbox or, alternatively, you can post your appeal form to:

Notification of Initiation of Development

6. Once it has been decided on the date to start work on the development to which this permission relates, the developer must inform the Council of that date as soon as is practicable and certainly before starting work. This is termed Notification of Intention of Development (NID). Failure to give such notice to the Council constitutes a breach of planning control. The notification must include:-
 - (i) The date on which the development is likely to commence.

Submit a Planning Application online at www.eplanning.scotland.gov.uk

View forms, drawings and comments at www.clacksweb.org.uk/eplanning/

- (ii) The full name and address of the person intending to carry out the development.
- (iii) The full name and address of the landowner if they are a different person.
- (iv) The full name and contact address/details of the site agent or other person appointed to oversee the development.
- (v) The reference number and date of issue of the planning permission.

Notification of Completion of Development

7. Once the development to which this permission relates has been completed, the applicant or developer must, as soon as practicable, notify the Council accordingly. This is termed Notification of Completion of Development (NCD). If the development is carried out in phases, the notification must be issued to the Council as soon as practicable after each phase.

Display of Notice while Development is carried out

8. If this permission relates to a national, major or bad neighbour development (such as a public house or hot food takeaway), the applicant or developer must, for the duration of the development, display one or more signs. The sign(s) must be displayed in a prominent place at or in the vicinity of the site, and be readily visible to the public. Failure to display the sign(s)/notice while carrying out the development constitutes a breach of planning control. The information to be displayed must include:-

- (i) The location of the development.
 - (ii) Any conditions attached to the planning permission.
 - (iii) The name and address of the developer.
 - (iv) The date on which planning permission was granted.
 - (v) The planning authority reference number.
 - (vi) A description of the development.
 - (vii) A note of the Council's contact details for enquiries relating to the development, which is development_services@clacks.gov.uk or Development Services, Clackmannanshire Council, Kilncraigs, Greenside Street, Alloa, FK10 2EB.
9. If permission to develop land is refused or granted subject to conditions and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, the owner of the land may serve on the planning authority a purchase notice requiring the purchase of the owner of the land's interest in the land in accordance with Part 5 of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997.
 10. It should be understood that this permission does not carry with it any necessary consent or approval to the proposed development under other statutory enactments. In particular, it does not constitute approval under the Building (Scotland) Acts, The Water Environment (Controlled Activities) (Scotland) Regulations or Roads (Scotland) Acts in respect of street works.
