Section 5		Disclosure Scotland Declaration
There is a need under the Protection of Children Act 2003 where those persons responsible for booking School Lets and for subsequently supervision or arranging supervision that they understand their obligations under the above Act and that they or their Supervisors are not listed on the 'Disqualified from Working with Children' Lists or equivalent Lists kept in England, Wales and Northern Ireland. For purposes of clarification, 'Children' are those under the age of 18 years.
The Council requires that any individual organiser, or group organiser (whether they supervise directly or use others to supervise the Let) indicates by signing the form that they are conversant with the relevant legislation and they have taken such steps as necessary to comply with that legislation.
